

INTRODUCTION TO FACULTY OF ECONOMIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Faculty of Economic Information Systems was established under Decision No. 802/QĐ-ĐHTN, dated August 11, 2011 by the President of Thai Nguyen University on the basis of the Department of Economic Information Systems established under Decision No. No. 63/QĐ-TCCB dated January 22, 2008 of the President of Thai Nguyen University. FEIS is the administrative management unit of ICTU. FEIS has actively researched and implemented the training and technology transfer tasks as planned by the University. With the motto of initiative and creativity, FEIS has gradually developed both in terms of training scale as well as output quality, meeting the need for high-quality human resources for the cause of industrialization and modernization of the country.

Organizational structure of FEIS includes: Dean of Faculty, Faculty's Scientific Council, Departments. FEIS is the unit that performs the tasks of training, scientific research, and directly manages the teaching staff and students of the faculty.

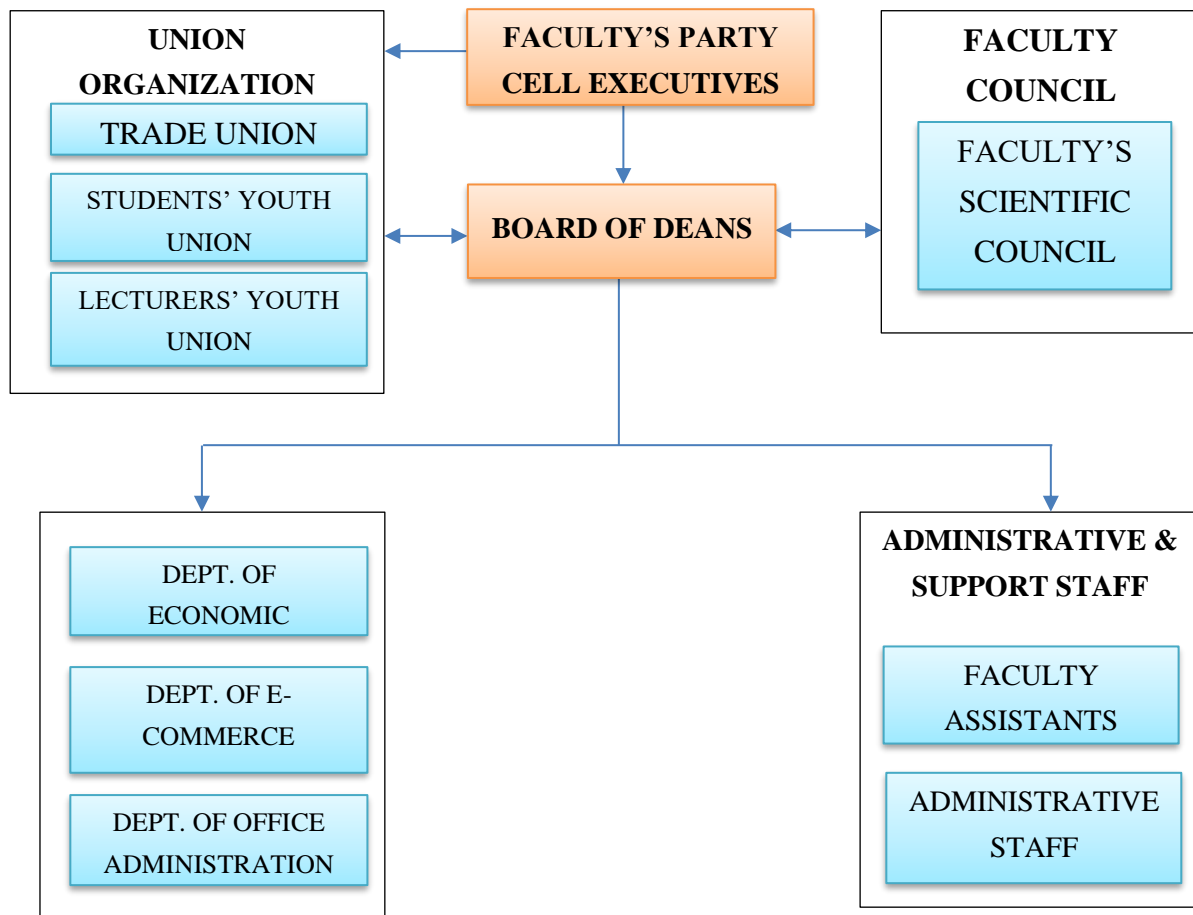

Figure 1.1. Organization chart of Faculty of Economic Information Systems

FEIS has 5 undergraduate programmes, 2 master's programmes and 0 doctoral programmes in the fields of Management Information Systems, E-commerce and Office Administration. Regarding training results, currently, the Faculty has graduated 11 undergraduate courses, is training 4 undergraduate courses and 1 graduate course.

Table 1.1. Information about FEIS's training programmes

No.	Name of programmes	Total number of training courses	Total number of students
1	Economic Informatics	15	1.025
2	Office Administration	11	959
3	Digital Marketing	2	108
4	E-commerce	9	462
5	Digital economy	2	27